

Scone Grammar School

ALL ROUNDER SCHOLARSHIP

May be applied for at any time during the year

Applicants must be students entering Years 7 to 11 in and have demonstrated academic achievement and be involved in co-curricular activities. They must demonstrate the capability to benefit from, and contribute to, the School's overall educational programme, including academic studies, music, art, drama, outdoor education and sport. They should display a high standard in at least one of these areas or another area not already specified.

Students currently attending Scone Grammar School are not eligible to apply.

Candidates must include, with this form, their last two (2) School Reports, plus two (2) written references and a CV of the applicant's achievements. It is suggested that one of the references be from someone who knows the child's academic performance and the other from a person relevant to the area of high standard.

Please complete and return this form addressed to the Registrar.
The School Principal will interview all likely candidates and their parents.
